

EUROX

EUROX'S PARTNERSHIP WITH STARK

Eurox's commitment to delivering exceptional service and support

Client Overview

Over the past seven and a half years, Eurox has been the trusted supplier for Stark, a leading company serving professionals in the construction and renovation industry. This partnership showcases Eurox's commitment to excellence, versatility, and fulfilling diverse client needs through an extensive range of products and services.

The Challenge

Stark required a comprehensive and diverse range of PPE, Workwear, Corporate wear, Footwear, Consumables, Leisurewear, Flame Retardant and ARC clothing, Tool Accessories, working from height equipment, and chainsaw gear. Additionally, the geographical spread across over 1,000 depots, showrooms, and warehouses throughout the UK and Ireland posed a significant logistical challenge.

Eurox's Solution

Eurox successfully supplied a wide array of products, including:

- PPE
- Workwear and Corporate Wear
- Footwear and Leisurewear
- Base Layer Garments
- Flame Retardant and ARC Clothing
- Tool Accessories
- Equipment for Working from Height and Chainsaw Operations

Beyond product supply, Eurox provided additional services such as new project mobilisations, roll-outs, a full measuring service to ensure customised fit for wearers, and associated training.

Implementation and Support

Eurox's national coverage demonstrated our capability to manage a large-scale and geographically diverse supply chain. We ensured that Stark's approximately 20,000 wearers received their equipment timely and reliably, maintaining high standards of service across all locations.

Innovative Solutions

Eurox's adaptability to different environments and commitment to tailored solutions were key to addressing the diverse needs of Stark's operations. We employed a meticulous planning approach to ensure seamless project mobilisations and roll-outs.

Conclusion

Eurox's partnership with Stark exemplifies our dedication to providing comprehensive solutions tailored to the client's needs. By maintaining high standards of service and ensuring reliable delivery across a large and geographically diverse workforce, Eurox has proven its capability to handle complex supply chain demands while prioritising client satisfaction and operational excellence.
